Lansing, MI (WILX) Saturday marked an important day for The Satanic Temple followers.

They displayed their yule goat in a special ceremony outside of the Lansing State Capitol building to honor their religion.

Members say if other religions are allowed to display their holiday symbols or scenes, then every religion should be able to despite what people may think.

"With beliefs comes conflict and there's nothing you can do about it other than go through it," said Marr Duck, Media Liaison for The Satanic Temple.

That's the stance most religions are taking on a procedure that prevents them from putting up religious displays.

Earlier this week, Mayor Andy Schor was asked to take down a menorah at the Capitol because it violated the separation of church and state, but there are ways to display religious mementos without breaking any rules.

The ceremony included residents of Lansing and nearby cities, some of which were annotated at the ceremony.

"Today is the winter solstice and originally when this nativity went up years ago it was on the winter solstice and that's a tradition we've tried to carry forward," said member Renard Seir.

This is why the Satanic Temple gathered in front of the Capitol building to begin their 7-day observance of the yule goat.

By law, the religious representation can only be held on public property for seven days and it must come down at night.

"We don't practice in and idolize the Satan that is presented in the Bible. We go by a literary version," said Seir.

The group says they want people to learn more about their religion and approach them with respectable questions to learn more about it.

"We deal with people who don't completely understand what it is we stand for all the time so we always try to be charitable and speak to people whether it's here or anywhere else," Marr Duck says.

The yule goat can't be on display overnight, but religious organizers will put it back up in the morning and take it down each night for the next six days this holiday season.

P. S. Fitting for that state of decay, smh and the curses of Mount Ebal will come as promised.

Warning Against Idolatry Deuteronomy 12:29 through 13:18

When the people of the land where you are going have been cut off before you by JAHWAH your Eloah, and you have taken their land and are living in it; After their destruction take care that you do not go in their ways, and that you do not give thought to their gods, saying, How did these nations give worship to their gods? I will do as they did. Do not so to JAHWAH your Eloah: for everything which is disgusting to JAHWAH and hated by him they have done in honour of their gods: even burning their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. You are to keep with care all the words I give you, making no addition to them and taking nothing from them.

If ever you have among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams and he gives you a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder takes place, and he says to you, "Let us go after other gods, which are strange to you, and give them worship"; then give no attention to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams: for JAHWAH your Eloah is testing you, to see if all the love of your heart and soul is given to him. But keep on in the ways of JAHWAH your Eloah, fearing him and keeping his orders and hearing his voice, worshipping him and being true to him. And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams is to be put to death; for his words were said with the purpose of turning you away from JAHWAH your Eloah, who took you out of the land of Egypt and made you free from the prison-house; and of forcing you out of the way in which JAHWAH your Eloah has given you orders to go. So you are to put away the evil from among you. If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or your daughter or the wife of your heart, or the friend who is as dear to you as your life, working on you secretly says to you, Let us go and give worship to other gods, strange to you and to your fathers; gods of the peoples round about you, near or far, from one end of the earth to the other; Do not be guided by him or give attention to him; have no pity on him or mercy, and give him no cover; but put him to death without question; let your hand be the first stretched out against him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people. Let him be stoned with stones till he is dead; because it was his purpose to make you false to JAHWAH your Eloah, who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house. And all Israel, hearing of it, will be full of fear, and no one will again do such evil as this among you. And if word comes to you, in one of the towns which JAHWAH your Eloah is giving you for your resting-place, that good-for-nothing persons have gone out from among you, turning the people of their town from the right way and saying, Let us go and give worship to other gods, of whom you have no knowledge; then let a full search be made, and let questions be put with care; and if it is true and certain that such a disgusting thing has been done among you; then take up arms against the people of that town and give it up to the curse, with all its cattle and everything in it. And take all the goods into the middle of its open space, burning the town and all its property with fire as an offering to JAHWAH your Eloah; it is to be a waste for ever; there is to be no more building there. Keep not a thing of what is cursed for yourselves: so JAHWAH may be turned away from the heat of his wrath, and have mercy on you, and give you increase as he said in his oath to your fathers: So long as you give ear to the voice of JAHWAH your Eloah, and keep all his orders which I give you today, and do what is right in the eyes of JAHWAH your Eloah.

Hearing and Doing the Word, James 1:19 - 27

Therefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of ELOAH.

So then, leave all uncleanness and remains of malice and receive with meekness the WORD ingested within you, which is able to cause your souls to be saved.

But be ye doers of the WORD, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if anyone hears the WORD and does not put it into practice, this same is like unto the man beholding his natural face in a mirror: For he considered himself and went his way and in one hour forgot what he was like.

But whosoever has looked attentively into the perfect law of liberty and has persevered in it, not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, the same shall be blessed in their deed.

If anyone among you thinks to be a believer and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, his belief is vain.

The pure and undefiled belief before Elohim and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation and to keep thyself unspotted from this world.

The priestly blessing, Numbers 6:23-27

“Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:‘ ‘

“JAHWAH bless you and keep you; JAHWAH make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; JAHWAH turn his face toward you and give you peace.” ’ “So they will put My Name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

May all JAHWAH'S people be blessed in the name of Jahwahshua our Meschiach Shalom and hallelujah!
